O Ir Kleyne Likhtelekh

Arnold Harris has set the Chanukah poem by the well known Yiddish poet, Morris Rosenfeld (1862-1923) in a SATB choral arrangement with piano accompaniment and choral acapella sections. Harris has set the text reflecting the gentleness of the little Chanukah candles with reflections on the many sad and fearful moments in Jewish history. Yiddish was the spoken language and linguistic basis of Eastern European Jewish culture before the holocaust of World War II. It is still thriving and is spoken by many Jews to this very day.

Lyrics & Translation by Theodore Bikel

O ir kleyne likhtelekh
Ir dertselt geshikhtelekh
Mayselekh on tzol
Ir dertseylt fun blutikeyt
Beryeshaft un mutikeit
Vunder von amol

O little lights of mystery
you recall our history
and all that went before
The battles and the bravery
And our release from slavery
Miracles galore

O ir kleyne likhtelekh
Ir dertselt geshikhtelekh
Vekn oif mein payn
Tifn harts bevegt es zikh
Un mit trern fegt es zikh
Vos vet itster zein?

O little lights of mystery
you recall our history
Our tales are tales of pain
My heart is filled with fears
My eyes are filled with tears
What now? the haunting refrain
